

Immigration Consultant Diploma

Survey Results

The data represents results compiled from 19 separate surveys administered by nine different instructors to IMCD students between September 16, 2009 and December 21, 2009. The total number of respondents who participated is 175.

Strongly agree / Agree / Disagree / Strongly Disagree / N/A

Percentages below represent students who answered 'strongly agree' or 'agree' to the question provided.

A 89%

My student adviser provided me with relevant information about courses available.

B 90%

Tests or exams were very closely related to the stated objectives of the course.

C 90%

I made progress toward achieving course objectives.

D 91%

The textbooks and/or course materials were useful tools for the course.

E 85%

The instructor was clear and understandable in communicating course content.

F 88%

The instructor used scheduled class time appropriately.

G 92%

The course outline clearly defined course objectives.

H 90%

Assignments were helpful in helping me meet course objectives.

I 90%

The instructor provided me with feedback on my progress during the course.

J 90%

The instructor was prepared and organized for every class.

K 89%

The instructor related the subject matter to real world situations, and professional practice of the discipline, and used examples or illustrations effectively to make course material clear.

L 90%

The instructor respected student's point of view.

